

February 23, 1924.

Polar Fisheries Company,
Colman Building,
Seattle, Washington.

Gentlemen:

With reference to your letters of January 28 and February 8 and 16, 1924, regarding the transfer of your salmon canning permit in the Cook Inlet District to Libby, McNeill & Libby, for the season of 1924, you are advised that the Department approves the transfer to Libby, McNeill & Libby for the season of 1924 of all rights granted to your company under Permit No. 81 for the taking and canning of salmon for commercial purposes in the Cook Inlet District.

All restrictions and conditions imposed by that permit with reference to salmon operations will be applicable to the operations by Libby, McNeill & Libby under the authority thus transferred.

Yours faithfully,

(Signed) S. B. Davis.

Acting Secretary of Commerce.

MSH